

I am an XM Satellite subscriber. I own an RV and was very glad to see that XM began offering traffic and weather. I travel often and have come to rely on this service. I find the local information very useful and the benefit of satellite broadcast signals allows me to receive stations without fumbling with radio controls while driving. The right to a free market economy is basic and should not be regulated!